

Indira Gandhi Institute of Development Research (IGIDR)

About Library:

The IGIDR library is rapidly building up to be one of the leading professional research and reference libraries in the country. All bibliographic details of books, journals and CD-ROM databases are accessible through the campus-wide Ethernet network. The library has over 100,000 printed documents, and it subscribes to over 406 national and international journals. It has established contacts with over 100 national and international organizations for exchange of the Institute's publications and inter-library loan arrangement.

The library of the Institute aims to be a leading research library in the fields of development studies, development economics, energy and environmental studies, general economics and Indian economy. It also aims to build a comprehensive collection of back volumes of journals in the field of Economics and related areas. IGIDR library caters to the institute's research and teaching activities. However, it is open to other academic users for reference. Visitors are requested to bring an official letter from their librarian. For further information, please contact the Chief Librarian( pujar@igidr.ac.in) .

Open Initiative Index (OII)

Open Index Initiative is a modest attempt by the [IGIDR library staff \[Mumbai, India\]](#) to develop an online and searchable bibliographic database for most of the Indian Social Science literature and resources available in Indian libraries. OII indexes selected Indian social science Journals and working papers/discussion papers/occasional Papers, and thesis/dissertations emanating from Indian social science and management institutes and various departments. We welcome all the library professionals of the country, working in social science and management libraries and faculty members from departments of library and information science, to join hands with us, in our endeavour to intensify resource sharing activities.
